HOLY EUCHARIST

GATHERING & INTRODUCTORY RITE

Entrance Hymn: Glorious things of you are spoken TIS 446

1. Glorious things of you are spoken, Zion, city of our God:
he whose word cannot be broken
formed you for his own abode.
On the Rock of Ages founded,
what can shake your sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
you may smile at all your foes.
2. See, the streams of living waters, springing from eternal love,
well supply your sons and daughters and all fear of want remove:
who can faint while such a river
ever flows their thirst to assuage — grace, which like the Lord the giver never fails from age to age.
3. Blest inhabitants of Zion, washed in their Redeemer's blood:
Jesus, whom their souls rely on,
makes them kings and priests to God.
For his love his people raises
over self to reign as kings, and as priests, his solemn praises
each for a thank-offering brings.
4. Saviour, since of Zion's city
I, through grace, a member am,
let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in your name:
fading are the worldlings' pleasures,
all their boasted pomp and show;
solid joys and lasting treasures
none but Zion's children know.

John Newton 1725–1807 alt.

In the name of the Father and of the Son ✠ and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Priest: The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Priest: *Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,
we welcome you to this celebration of the Eucharist.
Let us offer our praise to God, who calls us to journey with each other in faith, hope and love.*

Sentence: *I call upon you, God,
for you will answer me;
bend your ear and hear my prayer.
Guard me as the pupil of your eye;
hide me in the shade of your wings.*

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Priest: As we gather this day, let us open ourselves to the God who invites us into this sacred time and space: Silence.

Let us pray.

Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name,
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PENITENTIAL RITE

Priest: As we prepare to celebrate the mystery of God's love, revealed in Word and Sacrament,
let us call to mind our sins seeking God's mercy. Silence.

In the wilderness we find your grace;
you love us with an everlasting love.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

There is none but you to uphold our cause;
our sin cries out and our guilt is great.

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Heal us, O Lord, and we shall be healed;
restore us and we shall know your joy.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Priest: May the God of love and power forgive you ✠
and free you from your sins,
heal and strengthen you by his Spirit,
and raise you to new life
in Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest and peace to God's people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you,
we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ,
only Son of the Father,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One;
you alone are the Lord;
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of ☩ God the Father. Amen.

or

Gloria, gloria, in excelsis Deo!
Gloria, gloria, alleluia, alleluia!

THE COLLECT

Priest: Let us pray: Silence.

Priest: Lord, tireless guardian of your people,
teach us to rely, day and night, on your care.
Drive us to seek your justice and your help,
and support our prayer lest we grow weary,
for in you alone is our strength.
We make our prayer through your Son,
our Lord Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns with you
and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: A reading from the book of Exodus 17: 8-13.

The Amalekites came and attacked Israel at Rephidim. Moses said to Joshua, 'Pick out men for yourself, and tomorrow morning march out to engage Amalek. I, meanwhile will stand on the hilltop, the staff of God in my hand.' Joshua did as Moses told him and marched out to engage Amalek, while Moses and Aaron and Hur went up to the top of the hill. As long as Moses kept his arms raised, Israel had the advantage; when he let his arms fall, the advantage went to Amalek. But Moses' arms grew heavy, so they took a stone and put it under him and on this he sat, Aaron and Hur supporting his arms, one on one side, one on the other; and his arms remained firm until sunset. With the edge of the sword Joshua cut down Amalek and his people.

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 120.

Response: Our help is from the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.

I lift up my eyes to the mountains:
from where shall come my help?
My help shall come from the Lord
who made heaven and earth.

Our help is from the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.

May he never allow you to stumble!
Let him sleep not, your guard.
No, he sleeps not nor slumbers, Israel's guard.

Our help is from the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.

The Lord is your guard and your shade;
at your right side he stands.
By day the sun shall not smite you nor the moon in the night.

Our help is from the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.

The Lord will guard you from evil,
he will guard your soul.
The Lord will guard your going and coming both now and for ever.

Our help is from the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.

Second Reading: A reading from the second letter of Paul to Timothy 3: 14-4:2.

You must keep to what you have been taught and know to be true; remember who your teachers were, and how, ever since you were a child, you have known the holy scriptures - from these you can learn the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and can profitably be used for teaching, for refuting error, for guiding people's lives and teaching them to be holy. This is how the man who is dedicated to God becomes fully equipped and ready for any good work. Before God and before Christ Jesus who is to be judge of the living and the dead, I put this duty to you, in the name of his Appearing and of his kingdom: proclaim the message and, welcome or unwelcome, insist on it. Refute falsehood, correct error, call to obedience - but do all with patience and with the intention of teaching.

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gradual Acclamation: Alleluia.

TIS 257

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Fintan O'Carroll and Christopher Walker (1985)

Gospel: Alleluia, alleluia!

The word of God is living and active;
it probes the thoughts and motives of our heart.

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Lord be with you
And also with you.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Saint Luke 18: 1-8

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the need to pray continually and never lose heart. 'There was a judge in a certain town' he said who had neither fear of God nor respect for man. In the same town there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, "I want justice from you against my enemy!" For a long time he refused, but at last he said to himself "Maybe I have neither fear of God nor respect for man, but since she keeps pestering me I must give this widow her just rights, or she will persist in coming and worry me to death." And the Lord said, 'You notice what the unjust judge has to say? Now will not God see justice done to his chosen who cry to him day and night even when he delays to help them? I promise you, he will see justice done to them and done speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find any faith on earth?'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

1700th Anniversary – First Council of Nicaea (325)

We believe in one God,
the Father, the almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection ☩ of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Lord, hear us, or Lord, in your mercy;
Lord, hear our prayer. Hear, our prayer.

Priest: Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.
Grant that what we have asked in faith
we may by your grace receive,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GREETING OF PEACE

Priest: Please stand for the greeting of peace.

The Lord shall give to his people the blessing of peace.

Priest: We are the body of Christ.

His Spirit is with us.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Priest: Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Hymn: Christ has made the sure foundation. TIS 432.

1. Christ is made the sure foundation,
Christ the head and cornerstone,
chosen by the Lord, and precious,
binding all the church in one,
holy Zion's help for ever,
and her confidence alone.
2. All that dedicated city, dearly loved by God on high,
in exultant jubilation
pours perpetual melody,
God the Three in One adoring,
praising him eternally.
3. Here among us, where we call you come, O Lord our God today;
with your gentle loving-kindness
hear your people as we pray, and your fullest benediction
pour upon us here today.
4. Here bestow on all your people
what we ask of you to gain,
what we gain from you for ever with the blessed to retain,
and hereafter in your glory
evermore with you to reign.
5. Praise and honour to the Father, praise and honour to the Son,
praise and honour to the Spirit,
ever Three and ever One,
one in might and one in glory
while eternal ages run.

INVITATION TO PRAYER

Priest: Pray, my friends, that your sacrifice and mine, may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

May the Lord accept this sacrifice at your hands,
for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and for the good of all his Church and world.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Priest: Merciful God,
the perfect sacrifice of Jesus Christ
made us your people.
In your love,
grant peace and unity to your Church.
May our sharing in this sacrament strengthen us to walk with Jesus, the Master Storyteller.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Priest: The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, ...

... for ever praising you and saying/singing:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Please kneel or be seated.

Holy and gracious God, ...

... do this in remembrance of me.'

Deacon/Priest: Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died:
Christ is risen:
Christ will come again.

Therefore, ...

....in songs of never ending praise:

Blessing and honour and glory and power
are yours for ever and ever. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

The Lord's Prayer or Our Father

Priest: Rejoicing in the presence of our risen Lord,
we are confident to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass
against us.
And lead us not into temptation:
but deliver us from evil.

Our Loving God in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
And forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin
against us.
Save us from a time of trial
and deliver us from evil.

*Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that,
by the help of your mercy and love,
we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress,
as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.*

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
We who are many are one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, bring eternal life to all God's people.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: grant us your peace.

The Prayer of Humble Access may be said

We do not presume to come to your table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table. But you are the same Lord whose nature is always to have mercy. Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Behold the Lamb of God,
Behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

God's holy gifts for God's holy people.

1. Give thanks with a grateful heart,
give thanks to the Holy One,
give thanks because he's given Jesus Christ his Son.
Give thanks with a grateful heart,
give thanks to the Holy One,
give thanks because he's given Jesus Christ his Son.
2. And now let the weak say, 'I am strong,
'let the poor say,
'I am rich because of what the Lord has done for us.
And now let the weak say, 'I am strong,
'let the poor say,
'I am rich because of what the Lord has done for us.
3. Give thanks with a grateful heart,
give thanks to the Holy One,
give thanks because he's given Jesus Christ his Son.
Give thanks with a grateful heart,
give thanks to the Holy One,
give thanks because he's given Jesus Christ his Son.
4. And now let the weak say, 'I am strong,
'let the poor say,
'I am rich because of what the Lord has done for us.
Give thanks, give thanks.

Henry Smith 1952–

Jubilate Deo. TIS731

Jubilate Deo, omnis terra. Servite Domino in laetitia.
Alleluia, alleluia, in laetitia; alleluia, alleluia, in laetitia!

(Rejoice in God, all the earth: serve the Lord in gladness.)

O Lord hear my prayer. TIS 741

O Lord hear my pray'r, O Lord hear my pray'r: when I call answer me.
O Lord hear my pray'r, O Lord hear my pray'r. Come and listen to me.

Antiphon: Blessed and praised be Jesus Christ in the most holy sacrament hosanna hosanna hosanna in excelsis x3.

Sentence: *See how the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him,
on those who hope in his love,
that he may rescue them from death
and feed them in time of famine.*

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Priest: Let us stand and pray. Silence.

Priest: Father of light,
you give us every good and perfect gift
and have brought us to birth by your word of truth:
may we be a living sign of that kingdom
where your whole creation will be made perfect.
May this eucharist help us to remain faithful.
May it teach us the way to eternal life.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR 150TH ANNIVERSARY

Priest: Let us stand and pray for the diocese as we celebrate our 150th anniversary.

Creator God of love,

All time and every place is your gift.

We thank you that you have blessed our Diocese for the last 150 years, even when we have failed in our high calling to herald your kingdom.

Your forgiveness, love and peace sustained generations of our forebears,

and we rejoice that you still bless us and invite us to work with you to build justice, hope and love in Western Victoria.

Inspire us with a new vision and new energy as we face the future, and help us to trust and commit to the humble serving path of Jesus, guided by your Holy Spirit. Amen.

THE BLESSING & DISMISSAL

Priest: Let us stand and pray for God's blessing. Silence.

Priest: May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind always be at your back.
May the sunshine warm upon your face,
and rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
may God hold you in the palm God's hand.

And the blessing of God almighty
Father, Son, ✠ and Holy Spirit, be amongst you and remain with you,
and all those whom you love and hold dear,
now and always. Amen.

Priest: Go in the peace of Christ,
glorifying the Lord by your life.
Thanks be to God.

Recessional Hymn: We have a Gospel to proclaim TIS 245

1. We have a gospel to proclaim,
good news for all throughout the earth;
the gospel of a Saviour's name:
we sing his glory, tell his worth.
2. Tell of his birth at Bethlehem not in a royal house or hall
but in a stable dark and dim,
the Word made flesh, a light for all.
3. Tell of his death at Calvary, hated by those he came to save,
in lonely suffering on the cross,
for all he loved his life he gave.
4. Tell of that glorious Easter morn;
empty the tomb, for he was free:
he broke the power of death and hell
that we might share his victory.
5. Tell of his reign at God's right hand, by all creation glorified.
He sends his Spirit on his church
to live for him, the Lamb who died.
6. Now we rejoice to name him King:
Jesus is Lord of all the earth.
This gospel-message we proclaim:
we sing his glory, tell his worth.

Edward Joseph Burns 1938– alt.

Recessional Voluntary:

We pray that you have experienced, in some small measure, something of God's love for you today.

*If you are a visitor to the Parish or new to our region
please make yourself known to us.*

Thought for the week from Mothers Union Australia

Calling the Sinners

'Jesus answered them, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. I have not come to call the righteous but the sinners to repentance"' (Luke 5:31-32)

Jesus was often criticised by the morally righteous for eating with 'tax collectors and sinners', in other words people that they looked down upon because of their sinful lifestyle. But Jesus had come precisely for the ones who needed him and so he gladly mixed with the sinners and taught them the gospel of forgiveness. As part of his call, he summoned them to repentance, for we are forgiven when we turn to the Lord and commit our lives to him. This is modelled by Levi, who abandoned tax collecting, through which he was exploiting other people for gain, to follow Jesus (see Luke 5:27-28). Of course, the morally upright need to repent also, but they are the ones who often find it hardest.

Question for thought:

Who does Jesus call upon to repent?

Loving Lord, we pray this week for the Dioceses of Nambale and Kitui in Kenya with the many challenges they face to family life which include high unemployment, crime, poverty and food insecurity. Give the members wisdom and grace with the many initiatives they have. May they continue to bring God's word of comfort in these struggles. We also pray for the members in Armidale who are all online and thank you for their faithfulness in upholding Christian marriage and family life. Amen.

First woman appointed to be the next Archbishop of Canterbury

Hattie Williams

03 October 2025

The Bishop of London, the Right Reverend and Right Honourable Sarah Mullally, has been announced as the next Primate of All England

Neil Turner for Lambeth Palace

The Bishop of London, the Rt Revd Sarah Mullally, is to be the next Archbishop of Canterbury

THE next Archbishop of Canterbury is to be the Rt Revd Sarah Mullally, the Bishop of London since 2018, Downing Street announced on Friday. She is to be the first woman to hold the post.

The nomination of the next Primate of All England was agreed by at least a two-thirds majority of the 17 voting members of the Canterbury Crown Nominations Commission (CNC), who held their final meeting last week. A shortlist had been agreed at their previous meeting in August (News, 8 August).

Bishop Mullally, who is 63, succeeds the Rt Revd Justin Welby, who resigned in November after the publication of the Makin report on the Church's handling of the abuse perpetrated by John Smyth (News, 15 November 2024). The CNC convened six months later, at the end of May.

Before ordination, Bishop Mullally trained and worked as a nurse in London, becoming a senior civil servant in the Department of Health. She was the youngest ever Chief Nursing Officer, holding that appointment from 1999 to 2004. She was ordained in 2001 and served as a self-supporting minister until 2006 in Battersea, south London.

She went on to be Team Rector of Sutton, in Southwark diocese, before being appointed Canon Treasurer of Salisbury Cathedral in 2012. She was elevated to the episcopate in 2015, as Bishop of Crediton in the diocese of Exeter. She was appointed Bishop of London just two years later (News, 17 December 2017).

While Bishop of Crediton, she was asked to lead on the implementation of recommendations set out in the Elliott review, which called for sweeping changes to the Church's safeguarding procedures (News, 27 May 2016). She has been an advocate for survivors of abuse in a church context.

Bishop Mullally is Dean of the Chapels Royal and speaks regularly in the House of Lords on issues including migration, child well-being, and health and social care. She has been outspoken against the assisted-dying Bill currently being considered by the Lords (News, 19 September). For three years, she led the Church's workstream on sexuality, Living in Love and Faith.

Bishop Mullally is married to a business architect and has two adult children.

The CNC was chaired by Lord Evans, a former head of MI5 and a crossbench peer. In an interview earlier this year, he described the process as one of "discernment" rather than straightforward "selection".

In addition to Lord Evans, the voting members were: the Archbishop of York, and the Bishop of Norwich, the Rt Revd Graham Usher, representing the Northern and Southern Provinces; and six members elected from the General Synod, five from the Anglican Communion, and three from the diocese of Canterbury.

Processes that follow the announcement include the election of the Archbishop-designate by the College of Canons of Canterbury Cathedral, followed by a Confirmation of Election in January, when the Archbishop-elect legally becomes the Archbishop of Canterbury. After this, the Archbishop will pay homage to the King before being installed in the Chair of St Augustine at Canterbury Cathedral.

Praying with St Benedict Workshop

Friday 14th & Saturday 15th November
10am – 3.30pm both days. (Refreshments from 9.30am)

Led by Mother Anne Clarke OSB, Abbess of Malling Abbey, UK.

The Rule of Saint Benedict lays out a pattern of life that integrates mind, body and spirit so that we may engage our whole being to 'pray without ceasing'. It continues to inspire people today and provides much wisdom to guide us as we seek to live God-centred lives in our distracted and media-soaked society.

In these two workshops we will explore the ways early Christians prayed, how they laid the foundations for Benedict's monastic life and what all this might mean for us today. These will be practical rather than scholarly workshops with reflections from Mother Anne along with opportunity for discussion, individual reflection and participation in prayer exercises inspired by the practices of early Christians and the Rule of St Benedict.

Workshop 1: 'Pray without ceasing' [1 Thess 5:17] – early Christian approaches to fulfilling St Paul's teaching.

Workshop 2: Prayer in the Rule of St Benedict – how the Rule can guide us toward living lives infused with the presence of God.

Each workshop will be complete in itself but taken together will give a deeper understanding of prayer and the Rule of St Benedict.

Mother Anne OSB has a PhD in computer science from Cambridge University, UK, and worked for 25 years in the hi-tech world of 'Silicon Fen' (as the area around Cambridge has come to be known). She was involved in early experiments with social media but became disillusioned with the idea that more technology was always a good thing. This led to training in massage therapy and exploration of the relationship between body and prayer. Eventually she followed God's call to live a life of prayer, entering the Benedictine monastic community of Malling Abbey in the UK in 2009.
