IN ORDINARY TIME
12th October 2025

We welcome you to the Anglican Parish of Warrnambool.

We hope that in today's celebration of the Eucharist you will encounter something of God's love for you.

We acknowledge the Peek Whurrong People, of the Maar Nations, the First Nations people, the traditional custodians of the land on which we are gathered. We give our respect to the local Elders: past, present & emerging. We extend that respect to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples here today.

HOLY EUCHARIST

GATHERING & INTRODUCTORY RITE

Entrance Hymn: Praise to the Lord TIS 111

1. Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation;
O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation.
Come all who hear,
brothers and sisters draw near,
praise him in glad adoration.
2. Praise to the Lord who in all things is wondrously reigning and, as on wings of an eagle, uplifting, sustaining:
have you not seen all that is needed has been sent by his gracious ordaining?
3. Praise to the Lord, who will prosper our work and defend us;
surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend us:
ponder anew
what the Almighty can do
as with his love he befriends us.
4. Praise to the Lord, who when darkness of sin is abounding, who, when the godless do triumph, our best hopes confounding,
sheds forth his light,
scatters the horrors of night,
saints with his mercy surrounding.
5. Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!
All that has life and breath, come now with praises before him.
Let the Amen
sound from his people again:
gladly for ever adore him.

Joachim Neander 1650–80

tr. Catherine Winkworth 1827–78 and others

In the name of the Father and of the Son ✠ and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Priest: The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Priest: *Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,
we welcome you to this celebration of the Eucharist.
Let us offer our praise to God, who calls us to journey with each other in faith, hope and love.*

Sentence: *If you, O Lord, laid bare our guilt, who could endure it?
But you are forgiving, God of Israel.*

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Priest: As we gather this day, let us open ourselves to the God who invites us into this sacred time and space: Silence.

Let us pray.

Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name,
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PENITENTIAL RITE

Priest: As we prepare to celebrate the mystery of God's love, revealed in Word and Sacrament,
let us call to mind our sins seeking God's mercy. Silence.

In the wilderness we find your grace;
you love us with an everlasting love.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

There is none but you to uphold our cause;
our sin cries out and our guilt is great.

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Heal us, O Lord, and we shall be healed;
restore us and we shall know your joy.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Priest: May the God of love and power forgive you ✠
and free you from your sins, heal and strengthen you by his Spirit,
and raise you to new life
in Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest and peace to God's people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you,
we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ,
only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One;
you alone are the Lord;
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of ☩ God the Father. Amen.

or

Gloria, gloria, in excelsis Deo!
Gloria, gloria, alleluia, alleluia!

THE COLLECT

Priest: Let us pray: Silence.

Priest: Lord,
our help and guide,
make your love the foundation of our lives.
May our love for you express itself
in our eagerness to do good for others.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: A reading from the Kings 5:14-17.

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram and a mighty warrior, obeyed Elisha: he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean. Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; Naaman came and stood before Elisha and said, “Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel; please accept a present from your servant.” But Elisha said, “As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing!” Naaman urged Elisha to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, “If not, please let two mule-loads of earth be given to your servant; for your servant will no longer offer burnt offering or sacrifice to any god except the Lord.”
This is the word of the Lord.

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 97:1-4.

Response: The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Sing a new song to the Lord for he has worked wonders.

His right hand and his holy arm have brought salvation.

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

The Lord has made known his salvation;
has shown his justice to the nations.
He has remembered his truth and love for the house of Israel.

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Shout to the Lord all the earth, ring out your joy.

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Second Reading: A reading from the letter of Paul to Timothy 2: 8-13.

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David— that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful—for he cannot deny himself.

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gradual Acclamation:

Halle Halle.

TIS 720.

Halle, Halle, Halle-ujah.
Halle, Halle, Halle-lujah.
Halle, Halle, Halle-lujah.
Hallelujah, Hallelujah.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia!

For all things give thanks to God,
because this is what he expects of you in Christ Jesus Alleluia, alleluia!

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Saint Luke 17: 11-19.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!” When Jesus saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” Then Jesus said to Samaritan, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

1700th Anniversary – First Council of Nicaea (325)

We believe in one God,
the Father, the almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection ✕ of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Lord, hear us, or Lord, in your mercy;
Lord, hear our prayer. Hear, our prayer.

Priest: Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.
Grant that what we have asked in faith
we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GREETING OF PEACE

Priest: Please stand for the greeting of peace.

The Lord shall give to his people the blessing of peace.

Priest: We are the body of Christ.

His Spirit is with us.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Priest: Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Hymn: Christ has made the sure foundation. TIS 432.

1. Christ is made the sure foundation,
Christ the head and cornerstone,
chosen by the Lord, and precious, binding all the church in one,
holy Zion's help for ever,
and her confidence alone.
2. All that dedicated city, dearly loved by God on high,
in exultant jubilation
pours perpetual melody,
God the Three in One adoring, praising him eternally.
3. Here among us, where we call you come, O Lord our God today;
with your gentle loving-kindness hear your people as we pray, and your fullest benediction
pour upon us here today.
4. Here bestow on all your people what we ask of you to gain, what we gain from you for ever with the blessed to retain, and hereafter in your glory
evermore with you to reign.
5. Praise and honour to the Father, praise and honour to the Son,
praise and honour to the Spirit,
ever Three and ever One,
one in might and one in glory
while eternal ages run.

INVITATION TO PRAYER

Priest: Pray, my friends, that your sacrifice and mine, may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

May the Lord accept this sacrifice at your hands,
for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and for the good of all his Church and world.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Priest: Merciful God,
the perfect sacrifice of Jesus Christ
made us your people.
In your love,
grant peace and unity to your Church.
May our sharing in this sacrament strengthen us to walk with Jesus, the Master Story Teller.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Priest: The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, ...
... for ever praising you and saying/singing:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Please kneel or be seated.

Holy and gracious God, ...
... do this in remembrance of me.'

Deacon/Priest: Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died:
Christ is risen:
Christ will come again.

Therefore, ...
....in songs of never ending praise:

Blessing and honour and glory and power are yours for ever and ever. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

The Lord's Prayer or Our Father

Priest: Rejoicing in the presence of our risen Lord,
we are confident to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass
against us.
And lead us not into temptation:
but deliver us from evil.

Our Loving God in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
And forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin
against us.
Save us from a time of trial and deliver us from evil.

*Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that,
by the help of your mercy and love,
we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.*

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
We who are many are one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, bring eternal life to all God's people.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: grant us your peace.

The Prayer of Humble Access may be said

We do not presume to come to your table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table. But you are the same Lord whose nature is always to have mercy. Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Behold the Lamb of God,
Behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

God's holy gifts for God's holy people.

1. Give thanks with a grateful heart,
give thanks to the Holy One,
give thanks because he's given Jesus Christ his Son.
Give thanks with a grateful heart,
give thanks to the Holy One,
give thanks because he's given Jesus Christ his Son.
2. And now let the weak say, 'I am strong,
'let the poor say,
'I am rich because of what the Lord has done for us.
And now let the weak say, 'I am strong,
'let the poor say,
'I am rich because of what the Lord has done for us.
3. Give thanks with a grateful heart,
give thanks to the Holy One,
give thanks because he's given Jesus Christ his Son.
Give thanks with a grateful heart,
give thanks to the Holy One,
give thanks because he's given Jesus Christ his Son.
4. And now let the weak say, 'I am strong,
'let the poor say,
'I am rich because of what the Lord has done for us.
Give thanks, give thanks.

Henry Smith 1952–

Jubilate Deo. TIS731

Jubilate Deo, omnis terra. Servite Domino in laetitia.
Alleluia, alleluia, in laetitia; alleluia, alleluia, in laetitia!

(Rejoice in God, all the earth: serve the Lord in gladness.)

O Lord hear my prayer. TIS 741

O Lord hear my pray'r, O Lord hear my pray'r: when I call answer me.
O Lord hear my pray'r, O Lord hear my pray'r. Come and listen to me.

Antiphon: Blessed and praised be Jesus Christ in the most holy sacrament hosanna hosanna hosanna in excelsis x3

Sentence: When the Lord is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Priest: Let us stand and pray. Silence.

Priest: God of our pilgrimage,
by this sacrament you make us one with Christ.
May this Eucharist increase within us
the healing power of your love.
May it guide and direct our efforts to please you in all things.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Notices:

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR 150TH ANNIVERSARY

Priest: Let us stand and pray for the diocese as we celebrate our 150th anniversary.

Creator God of love,
All time and every place is your gift.
We thank you that you have blessed our Diocese for the last 150 years, even when we have failed in our high calling to herald your kingdom.
Your forgiveness,
love and peace sustained generations of our forebears, and we rejoice that you still bless us and invite us to work with you to build justice, hope and love in Western Victoria.
Inspire us with a new vision and new energy as we face the future, and help us to trust and commit to the humble serving path of Jesus, guided by your Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Blessing & Dismissal

Priest: Let us stand and pray for God's blessing. Silence.

Priest: May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind always be at your back.
May the sunshine warm upon your face,
and rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
may God hold you in the palm God's hand.

And the blessing of God almighty
Father, Son, ✠ and Holy Spirit, be amongst you and remain with you,
and all those whom you love and hold dear,
now and always. Amen.

Priest: Go in the peace of Christ,
glorifying the Lord by your life.
Thanks be to God.

Recessional Hymn: How sweet the name of Jesus sounds. TIS 223.

1. How sweet the name of Jesus sounds in a believer's ear!
It soothes our sorrows, heals our wounds,
and drives away our fear.
2. It makes the wounded spirit whole and calms the troubled breast, is manna to the hungry soul
and to the weary rest.
3. Dear name! the rock on which I build,
my shield and hiding-place,
my never-failing treasury, filled with boundless stores of grace:
4. Jesus, my shepherd, brother, friend, my prophet, priest and king,
my Lord, my life, my way, my end,
accept the praise I bring.
5. Weak is the effort of my heart, and cold my warmest thought;
but when I see you as you are I'll praise you as I ought.

Thought for the week from Mothers Union Australia

A Father to the Fatherless

'Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world'. (James 1:27)

We are surrounded by people in need, but sometimes we do not see them. When someone is widowed, they need the care of their friends, not only in the first week, but in the months and perhaps years that follow. This may involve practical care such as meals and advice and even housing and financial support. People who are connected to the prison system are also especially vulnerable, whether they are prisoners, or the family of those in gaol. I had a friend who looked after people in the weeks after their release, when they were trying to re-establish their lives. This was an important ministry. The care of 'orphans and widows' reflects the nature of the God we worship who cares for the fatherless and the orphaned (Psalms 68:5).

Question for thought: Do I have the eyes of love for those in special need?

Heavenly Father, we bring before you the Mothers Union family in the Union of Episcopal Anglican Women of Brazil. Give them wisdom as they reach out to others in your name and help to transform communities, giving practical support to victims of domestic violence, immigrants and the elderly. Amen.

First woman appointed to be the next Archbishop of Canterbury

Hattie Williams

03 October 2025

The Bishop of London, the Right Reverend and Right Honourable Sarah Mullally, has been announced as the next Primate of All England

Neil Turner for Lambeth Palace

The Bishop of London, the Rt Revd Sarah Mullally, is to be the next Archbishop of Canterbury

THE next Archbishop of Canterbury is to be the Rt Revd Sarah Mullally, the Bishop of London since 2018, Downing Street announced on Friday. She is to be the first woman to hold the post.

The nomination of the next Primate of All England was agreed by at least a two-thirds majority of the 17 voting members of the Canterbury Crown Nominations Commission (CNC), who held their final meeting last week. A shortlist had been agreed at their previous meeting in August (News, 8 August).

Bishop Mullally, who is 63, succeeds the Rt Revd Justin Welby, who resigned in November after the publication of the Makin report on the Church's handling of the abuse perpetrated by John Smyth (News, 15 November 2024). The CNC convened six months later, at the end of May.

Before ordination, Bishop Mullally trained and worked as a nurse in London, becoming a senior civil servant in the Department of Health. She was the youngest ever Chief Nursing Officer, holding that appointment from 1999 to 2004. She was ordained in 2001 and served as a self-supporting minister until 2006 in Battersea, south London.

She went on to be Team Rector of Sutton, in Southwark diocese, before being appointed Canon Treasurer of Salisbury Cathedral in 2012. She was elevated to the episcopate in 2015, as Bishop of Crediton in the diocese of Exeter. She was appointed Bishop of London just two years later (News, 17 December 2017).

While Bishop of Crediton, she was asked to lead on the implementation of recommendations set out in the Elliott review, which called for sweeping changes to the Church's safeguarding procedures (News, 27 May 2016). She has been an advocate for survivors of abuse in a church context.

Bishop Mullally is Dean of the Chapels Royal and speaks regularly in the House of Lords on issues including migration, child well-being, and health and social care. She has been outspoken against the assisted-dying Bill currently being considered by the Lords (News, 19 September). For three years, she led the Church's workstream on sexuality, Living in Love and Faith.

Bishop Mullally is married to a business architect and has two adult children.

The CNC was chaired by Lord Evans, a former head of MI5 and a crossbench peer. In an interview earlier this year, he described the process as one of "discernment" rather than straightforward "selection".

In addition to Lord Evans, the voting members were: the Archbishop of York, and the Bishop of Norwich, the Rt Revd Graham Usher, representing the Northern and Southern Provinces; and six members elected from the General Synod, five from the Anglican Communion, and three from the diocese of Canterbury.

Processes that follow the announcement include the election of the Archbishop-designate by the College of Canons of Canterbury Cathedral, followed by a Confirmation of Election in January, when the Archbishop-elect legally becomes the Archbishop of Canterbury. After this, the Archbishop will pay homage to the King before being installed in the Chair of St Augustine at Canterbury Cathedral.

"What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save them? Suppose a brother or a sister is without clothes and daily food. If one of you says to them, 'Go in peace; keep warm and well fed,' but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it? In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead."

Lives of Honour
Ballarat East and the Great War

Anne Doggett

Book Launch
Monday 11 November 2024, 2.30pm
Eureka Centre
102 Stawell Street S. Ballarat East

St Paul's Church, Bakery Hill, invites you to the launch of Lives of Honour: Ballarat East and the Great War. The book examines the lives of 177 World War One soldiers who were closely associated with the church.

In publishing this book, St Paul's acknowledges the assistance of a City of Ballarat Community Grant, and a Saluting Their Service grant from the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

Guest speaker, Dr Carolyn Holbrook, Associate Professor School of Humanities and Social Sciences, Deakin University, has a deep interest in military history, and is the prize-winning author of Anzac: the Unauthorised Biography.

Entrance is free. Light refreshments and discounted copies of Lives of Honour will be available after the launch. Please indicate your intention to attend by emailing adoggett1204@gmail.com, or calling 0401 007 429.
