THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: A reading from the second book of Maccabees 7:1–2, 9-14.

It happened that seven brothers and their mother were arrested and were being compelled by King Antiochus, under torture with whips and thongs, to partake of unlawful swine's flesh. One of the brothers, speaking for all, said, "What do you intend to ask and learn from us? For we are ready to die rather than transgress the laws of our ancestors." After the first brother had died, they brought forward the second for their sport. And when he was at his last breath, he said to King, "You accursed wretch, you dismiss us from this present life, but the King of the universe will raise us up to an everlasting renewal of life, because we have died for his laws." After him, the third was the victim of their sport. When it was demanded, he quickly put out his tongue and courageously stretched forth his hands, and said nobly, "I got these from Heaven, and because of God's laws I disdain them, and from God I hope to get them back again." As a result the king himself and those with him were astonished at the young man's spirit, for he regarded his sufferings as nothing. After the third brother too had died, they maltreated and tortured the fourth in the same way. When he was near death, he said to his torturers, "One cannot but choose to die at the hands of mortals and to cherish the hope God gives of being raised again by him. But for you, there will be no resurrection to life!"

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 16: Vs: 1, 5 – 6, 8, 15

Response: Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

Lord, hear a cause that is just,
pay heed to my cry.
Turn your ear to my prayer:
no deceit is on my lips.

Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

I kept my feet firmly in your paths;
there was no faltering in my steps.
I am here and I call, you will hear me, O God.
Turn your ear to me; hear my words.

Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

Guard me as the apple of your eye.
Hide me in the shadow of your wings.
As for me, in my justice I shall see your face and be filled, when I awake, with the sight of your glory.

Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

Second Reading: A reading from the second letter of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians 2: 16 – 3: 5.

May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good word. Brothers and sisters, pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified everywhere, just as it is among you, and that we may be rescued from wicked and evil people; for not all have faith. But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one. And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you are doing and will go on doing the things that we command. May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gradual Acclamation:

Halle, halle, hallelujah!

TIS 720

Halle, halle, hallelujah!

Halle, halle, hallelujah!

Halle, halle, hallelujah!

Hallelujah, hallelujah!

Gospel: Alleluia, alleluia!

All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them and we will come to them.

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Saint Luke 20: 27 – 38.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus. Jesus said to them, “Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

1700th Anniversary – First Council of Nicaea (325)

We believe in one God,
the Father, the almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection ☩ of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Lord, hear us, or Lord, in your mercy;
Lord, hear our prayer. Hear, our prayer.

Priest: Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.
Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GREETING OF PEACE

Priest: Please stand for the greeting of peace.

Be strong through the grace that is yours in union with Christ Jesus.

Priest: We are the body of Christ.

His Spirit is with us.

Priest: The peace of the Lord be always with you

And also with you.

Deacon/Priest: Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Hymn: Lord Christ, at your first eucharist. TIS 521.

1. Lord Christ, at your first eucharist you prayed that all your church might be for ever one;
may at each eucharist this prayer be made with longing heart and soul, 'Your will be done.'
O may we all one bread, one body be,
through this blest sacrament of unity.
2. For all your church, O Lord, we intercede;
make all our sad divisions soon to cease;
draw us the nearer each to each, we plead,
by drawing all to you, O Prince of Peace:
thus may we all one bread, one body be,
through this blest sacrament of unity.
3. We also pray for wanderers from your fold;
O bring them back, Good Shepherd of the sheep,
back to the faith which saints believed of old,
back to your church which still one faith must keep:
soon may we all one bread, one body be,
through this blest sacrament of unity.
4. So, Lord, at length when sacraments shall cease may we be one with all your church above, one with your saints in one unbroken peace,
one with your saints in one unbounded love;
more blessed still, in peace and love to be one with the Trinity in Unity.

William Henry Turton 1856-1938

INVITATION TO PRAYER

Priest: Pray, my friends, that your sacrifice and mine, may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

May the Lord accept this sacrifice at your hands,
for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and for the good of all his Church and world.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Priest: God of peace and love,
in this eucharist we proclaim the death of the Lord.
Accept our prayers, receive our gifts and help us follow Jesus with love.
May this celebration of praise and thanksgiving build us into a welcoming and transforming community of faith.
We ask this in the name of Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Priest: The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, ...
... for ever praising you and saying/singing:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Please kneel or be seated.

Holy and gracious God, ...
... do this in remembrance of me.'

Deacon: Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died:
Christ is risen:
Christ will come again.

Therefore, ...

....in songs of never ending praise:

Blessing and honour and glory and power are yours for ever and ever. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

The Lord's Prayer or Our Father

Deacon: Informed by divine teaching, and with the words Christ taught us, we pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass
against us.
And lead us not into temptation:
but deliver us from evil.

Our Loving God in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
And forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin
against us.
Save us from a time of trial and deliver us from evil.

*Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that,
by the help of your mercy and love,
we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.*

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
We who are many are one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, bring eternal life to all God's people.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: grant us your peace.

The Prayer of Humble Access may be said

We do not presume to come to your table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table. But you are the same Lord whose nature is always to have mercy. Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Behold the Lamb of God,
Behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

God's holy gifts for God's holy people.

Communion Anthem:

Communion Hymns: My God, your table TIS 510

1. My God, your table now is spread, your cup with love will overflow;
be all your children to it led,
and let them all its sweetness know.
2. A sacred feast which Jesus makes, rich banquet of his flesh and blood!
How happy those who here partake that sacred stream, that heavenly food.
3. Still let your table honoured be,
and furnished well with joyful guests;
and may each soul salvation see that here its sacred pledges tastes.

Anglicare November donations

Anglicare would like to thank everyone who donated toilet articles to our Emergency Food Centre. This month the focus will be on jam, vegemite, honey, peanut butter etc. Many of the people who use the Emergency Food Centre are families who are finding it hard to manage as prices continue to rise. There are many pensioners who are also in the same position. Therefore, your help is greatly appreciated both by them and by us.

From the Anglicare volunteers.

Finding our Way Forward

'For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them' (Ephesians 2:10)

God has been so kind and gracious to his children through Jesus. We now want to live for him, not to win his grace, but because of his grace. I know a married couple who have been inspired by this verse to pray frequently that they will find and do the good works that God has prepared for them to walk in this day. Even if you pray it on your own, it is still worth asking for this special blessing. The wonderful thing is, too, that we can keep praying it and even if you are disabled, there are still other people to love and care for as you follow the way of Christ.

Question for thought:

Isn't it wonderful that God prepares the way before us as we set out each day?

Heavenly Father, we bring before you the Dioceses of Ottawa in Canada and Dunkwa-on-Offin in Ghana. We thank you that members in Ghana are committed in their communities and endeavour to have many activities that care for those in need and bring them your love. As they have opportunity may they share the comfort of the gospel to troubled hearts. We ask too for members in Ottawa that in spite of vast distances they will be united in prayer as 'do the good works you have prepared for them to walk in.' Amen.

Praying with St Benedict Workshop

Friday 14th & Saturday 15th November
10am – 3.30pm both days. (Refreshments from 9.30am)

Led by Mother Anne Clarke OSB, Abbess of Malling Abbey, UK.

The Rule of Saint Benedict lays out a pattern of life that integrates mind, body and spirit so that we may engage our whole being to 'pray without ceasing'. It continues to inspire people today and provides much wisdom to guide us as we seek to live God-centred lives in our distracted and media-soaked society.

In these two workshops we will explore the ways early Christians prayed, how they laid the foundations for Benedict's monastic life and what all this might mean for us today. These will be practical rather than scholarly workshops with reflections from Mother Anne along with opportunity for discussion, individual reflection and participation in prayer exercises inspired by the practices of early Christians and the Rule of St Benedict.

Workshop 1: 'Pray without ceasing' [1 Thess 5:17] – early Christian approaches to fulfilling St Paul's teaching.

Workshop 2: Prayer in the Rule of St Benedict – how the Rule can guide us toward living lives infused with the presence of God.

Each workshop will be complete in itself but taken together will give a deeper understanding of prayer and the Rule of St Benedict.

Mother Anne OSB has a PhD in computer science from Cambridge University, UK, and worked for 25 years in the hi-tech world of 'Silicon Fen' (as the area around Cambridge has come to be known). She was involved in early experiments with social media but became disillusioned with the idea that more technology was always a good thing. This led to training in massage therapy and exploration of the relationship between body and prayer. Eventually she followed God's call to live a life of prayer, entering the Benedictine monastic community of Malling Abbey in the UK in 2009.
