THIRTIETH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME
26th October 2025

We welcome you to the Anglican Parish of Warrnambool.

We hope that in today's celebration of the Eucharist you will encounter something of God's love for you.

We acknowledge the Peek Whurrong People, of the Maar Nations, the First Nations people, the traditional custodians of the land on which we are gathered. We give our respect to the local Elders: past, present & emerging. We extend that respect to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples here today.

HOLY EUCHARIST

GATHERING & INTRODUCTORY RITE

Entrance Hymn: Father of Heaven. TIS 131.

1. Father of heaven, whose love profound a ransom for our souls has found,
before your throne we sinners bend;
to us your pardoning love extend.
2. Almighty Son, incarnate Word,
our prophet, priest, redeemer, Lord,
before your throne we sinners bend;
to us your saving grace extend.
3. Eternal Spirit, by whose breath
the soul is saved from sin and death,
before your throne we sinners bend;
to us your quickening power extend.
4. Thrice holy – Father, Spirit, Son, mysterious Godhead, Three in One,
before your throne we sinners bend;
grace, pardon, life to us extend.

Edward Cooper 1770–1833

In the name of the Father and of the Son ✠ and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Priest: The Lord be with you.
 And also with you.

Priest: *Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,
we welcome you to this celebration of the Eucharist.
Let us offer our praise to God, who calls us to journey with each other in faith, hope and love.*

Sentence: *Let hearts rejoice who search for the Lord.
Seek the Lord and his strength, seek always the face of the Lord.*

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Priest: As we gather this day, let us open ourselves to the God who invites us into this sacred time and space: Silence.

Let us pray.

Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name,
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PENITENTIAL RITE

Priest: As we prepare to celebrate the mystery of God's love, revealed in Word and Sacrament,
let us call to mind our sins seeking God's mercy. Silence.

In the wilderness we find your grace;
you love us with an everlasting love.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

There is none but you to uphold our cause;
our sin cries out and our guilt is great.

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Heal us, O Lord, and we shall be healed;
restore us and we shall know your joy.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Priest: May the God of love and power forgive you ✠
and free you from your sins,
heal and strengthen you by his Spirit,
and raise you to new life
in Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest and peace to God's people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you,
we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ,
only Son of the Father,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One;
you alone are the Lord;
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of ☩ God the Father. Amen.

or

Gloria, gloria, in excelsis Deo!

THE COLLECT

Priest: Let us pray: Silence.

Priest: Almighty and ever-living God,
strengthen our faith, hope, and love.
May we do with loving hearts what you ask of us
and come to share the life you promise.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ,
your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: A reading from the book of Sirach 35: 12-14, 16-19.

The Lord is the judge, and with him there is no partiality. He will not show partiality to the poor but he will listen to the prayer of one who is wronged. The Lord will not ignore the supplication of the orphan, or the widow when she pours out her complaint. The one whose service is pleasing to the Lord will be accepted, and the prayer of such a person will reach to the cloud. The prayer of the humble pierces the clouds, and it will not rest until it reaches its goal; it will not desist until the Most High responds and does justice for the righteous, and executes judgment. Indeed, the Lord will not delay.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 32 Vs: 2-3, 17-19, 23

Response: The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad.

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth.
The just call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress.

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

The Lord is close to the broken-hearted;
those whose spirit is crushed he will save.
The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.
Those who hide in him shall not be condemned.

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

Second Reading: A reading from the second letter of Paul to Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18.

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Fintan O'Carroll and Christopher Walker (1985)

Gospel: Alleluia, alleluia!

God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself; and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us.

Alleluia!

The Lord be with you
And also with you.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Saint Luke 18.9-14.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' "But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

Ofir Hirsh

1700th Anniversary – First Council of Nicaea (325)

We believe in one God,
the Father, the almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary,
and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection ☩ of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Priest: Let us pray for all people and for the Church throughout the world.

Lord, hear us, or Lord, in your mercy;
Lord, hear our prayer. Hear, our prayer.

Priest: Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.
Grant that what we have asked in faith
we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GREETING OF PEACE

Priest: Please stand for the greeting of peace.

The Lord shall give to his people the blessing of peace.

Priest: We are the body of Christ.

His Spirit is with us.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Priest: Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Hymn: All Praise To Thee. TIS 558.

1. All praise to thee, my God, this night for all the blessings of the light:
keep me, O keep me, King of kings,
beneath thine own almighty wings.
2. Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
the ill that I this day have done,
that with the world, myself, and thee
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.
3. O may my soul on thee repose, and may sweet sleep my eyelids close — sleep that shall me more vigorous make to serve my God when I awake.
4. When in the night I sleepless lie, my soul with heavenly thoughts supply;
let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
no powers of darkness me molest.
5. Praise God, from whom all blessings flow, praise God, all creatures here below,
praise God above, you heavenly host,
praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

Thomas Ken 1637–1711 alt.

INVITATION TO PRAYER

Priest: Pray, my friends, that your sacrifice and mine, may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

May the Lord accept this sacrifice at your hands,
for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and for the good of all his Church and world.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Priest: Merciful God,
the perfect sacrifice of Jesus Christ
made us your people.
In your love,
grant peace and unity to your Church.
May our sharing in this sacrament strengthen us to walk with Jesus, the Master Storyteller.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Priest: The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, ...

... for ever praising you and saying/singing:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Please kneel or be seated.

Holy and gracious God, ...

... do this in remembrance of me.'

Deacon/Priest: Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died:
Christ is risen:
Christ will come again.

Therefore, ...

....in songs of never ending praise:

Blessing and honour and glory and power
are yours for ever and ever. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

The Lord's Prayer or Our Father

Priest: Rejoicing in the presence of our risen Lord,
we are confident to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass
against us.
And lead us not into temptation:
but deliver us from evil.

Our Loving God in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
And forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin
against us.
Save us from a time of trial and deliver us from evil.

*Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that,
by the help of your mercy and love,
we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress,
as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.*

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
We who are many are one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, bring eternal life to all God's people.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: grant us your peace.

The Prayer of Humble Access may be said

We do not presume to come to your table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table. But you are the same Lord whose nature is always to have mercy. Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Behold the Lamb of God,
Behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

God's holy gifts for God's holy people.

Communion Hymns:

Just as I am.

TIS 584.

1. Just as I am, without one plea but that your blood was shed for me,
and that you would my Saviour be,
O Lamb of God, I come.
2. Just as I am, though tossed about with many a conflict, many a doubt, fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come.
3. Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind — sight, riches, healing of the mind, yes, all I need, in you to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.
4. Just as I am, you will receive, will welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
because your promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.
5. Just as I am — your love unknown has broken every barrier down —
now to be yours, and yours alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.
6. Just as I am, of that free love the breadth, length, depth and height to prove,
here for a season, then above,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Charlotte Elliott 1789–1871 alt.

The Lord is my light.

TIS 747.

The Lord is my light, my light and salvation:
in God I trust, in God I trust.
The Lord is my light, my light and salvation:
in God I trust, in God I trust.

Jesus remember me.

TIS 730

Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.
Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.

Antiphon: Blessed and praised be Jesus Christ in the most holy sacrament hosanna hosanna hosanna in excelsis x3.

Sentence: We will rejoice at the victory of God and make our boast in his great name.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Priest: Let us stand and pray. Silence.

Priest: Father of light,
you give us every good and perfect gift
and have brought us to birth by your word of truth:
may we be a living sign of that kingdom
where your whole creation will be made perfect.
May this eucharist help us to remain faithful.
May it teach us the way to eternal life.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

Notices:

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR 150TH ANNIVERSARY

Priest: Let us stand and pray for the diocese as we celebrate our 150th anniversary.

Creator God of love,

All time and every place is your gift.

We thank you that you have blessed our Diocese for the last 150 years, even when we have failed in our high calling to herald your kingdom.

Your forgiveness, love and peace sustained generations of our forebears,

and we rejoice that you still bless us and invite us to work with you to build justice, hope and love in Western Victoria.

Inspire us with a new vision and new energy as we face the future, and help us to trust and commit to the humble serving path of Jesus, guided by your Holy Spirit. Amen.

THE BLESSING & DISMISSAL

Priest: Let us stand and pray for God's blessing. Silence.

Priest: May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind always be at your back.
May the sunshine warm upon your face,
and rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
may God hold you in the palm God's hand.

And the blessing of God almighty
Father, Son, ✠ and Holy Spirit, be amongst you and remain with you,
and all those whom you love and hold dear,
now and always. Amen.

Priest: Go in the peace of Christ,
glorifying the Lord by your life.
Thanks be to God.

Recessional Hymn: Tell out my soul. TIS 161.

1. Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord!
Unnumbered blessings, give my spirit voice;
tender to me the promise of his word;
in God my Saviour shall my heart rejoice.
2. Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his name!
Make known his might, the deeds his arm has done;
his mercy sure, from age to age the same;
his holy name - the Lord, the Mighty One.
3. Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his might!
Powers and dominions lay their glory by.
Proud hearts and stubborn wills are put to flight,
the hungry fed, the humble lifted high.
4. Tell out, my soul, the glories of his word!
Firm is his promise, and his mercy sure.
Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord
to children's children and for evermore!

Timothy Dudley-Smith 1926–2024

Recessional Voluntary:

We pray that you have experienced, in some small measure, something of God's love for you today.

*If you are a visitor to the Parish or new to our region
please make yourself known to us.*

Reverend Malcolm & Anne Frazer

I would like to acknowledge the significant ministry of the Reverend Malcolm and Anne Frazer to the Uniting Church of Australia. I am particularly grateful for their contribution to the Warrnambool and Southwest community over the last 13 years. Please keep them in your prayers as they start the 'next chapter' of their lives in retirement.

Synod

Copies of + Garry's Presidential Charge are available in the Hammond Fellowship Centre.

Notices

Anglicare Warrnambool

Wanted: Toilet articles such as soap, toothpaste, tooth brushes, etc. Anglicare is very short of these at the moment and as everything becomes more expensive these are the first to be left out of the shopping list. So, if you can donate even a small item it will be gratefully received by those in need. There will be a collection box next to the small table in the Church on Sundays and in the Hammond Fellowship Centre during the week. Marilyn Woodward, on behalf of the Anglicare volunteers.

Parish Fete - Sunday 9th November

Donations of groceries for Mothers' Union hampers and items for raffle hampers would be appreciated.

Also, books, trash and treasure and plants for other stalls can be left at the Parish Office.

Thought for the week from Mothers Union Australia

The New Creation

'Therefore if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: the old has gone the new is here!' (2 Corinthians 5:17)

Jesus preached the coming kingdom of God. In his death, resurrection and ascension the kingdom arrived. It is not here in its fullness yet, as sin and evil still exist and even we who are new creations in him are not free from sin. But we can see the power of the new creation at work in the way in which Christians care for those around them, not least the most lowly. That is why prison ministry is so important, and we should pray and be interested in it. No-one is more vulnerable than those in gaol. It is one of the features of Mothers Union that we have a ministry to the sick and suffering. This reflects the character of the Lord Jesus himself and the work of his Spirit in our hearts.

Question for thought:

How do I love my neighbour as myself?

Gracious God, we pray for our sisters in Glasgow and Galloway in Scotland as they offer support to prisoners and their families and to families affected by domestic abuse and human trafficking. May they have opportunities to share your love and care in the name of Jesus. Amen.

First woman appointed to be the next Archbishop of Canterbury

Hattie Williams

03 October 2025

The Bishop of London, the Right Reverend and Right Honourable Sarah Mullally, has been announced as the next Primate of All England

Neil Turner for Lambeth Palace

The Bishop of London, the Rt Revd Sarah Mullally, is to be the next Archbishop of Canterbury

THE next Archbishop of Canterbury is to be the Rt Revd Sarah Mullally, the Bishop of London since 2018, Downing Street announced on Friday. She is to be the first woman to hold the post.

The nomination of the next Primate of All England was agreed by at least a two-thirds majority of the 17 voting members of the Canterbury Crown Nominations Commission (CNC), who held their final meeting last week. A shortlist had been agreed at their previous meeting in August (News, 8 August).

Bishop Mullally, who is 63, succeeds the Rt Revd Justin Welby, who resigned in November after the publication of the Makin report on the Church's handling of the abuse perpetrated by John Smyth (News, 15 November 2024). The CNC convened six months later, at the end of May.

Before ordination, Bishop Mullally trained and worked as a nurse in London, becoming a senior civil servant in the Department of Health. She was the youngest ever Chief Nursing Officer, holding that appointment from 1999 to 2004. She was ordained in 2001 and served as a self-supporting minister until 2006 in Battersea, south London.

She went on to be Team Rector of Sutton, in Southwark diocese, before being appointed Canon Treasurer of Salisbury Cathedral in 2012. She was elevated to the episcopate in 2015, as Bishop of Crediton in the diocese of Exeter. She was appointed Bishop of London just two years later (News, 17 December 2017).

While Bishop of Crediton, she was asked to lead on the implementation of recommendations set out in the Elliott review, which called for sweeping changes to the Church's safeguarding procedures (News, 27 May 2016). She has been an advocate for survivors of abuse in a church context.

Bishop Mullally is Dean of the Chapels Royal and speaks regularly in the House of Lords on issues including migration, child well-being, and health and social care. She has been outspoken against the assisted-dying Bill currently being considered by the Lords (News, 19 September). For three years, she led the Church's workstream on sexuality, Living in Love and Faith.

Bishop Mullally is married to a business architect and has two adult children.

The CNC was chaired by Lord Evans, a former head of MI5 and a crossbench peer. In an interview earlier this year, he described the process as one of "discernment" rather than straightforward "selection".

In addition to Lord Evans, the voting members were: the Archbishop of York, and the Bishop of Norwich, the Rt Revd Graham Usher, representing the Northern and Southern Provinces; and six members elected from the General Synod, five from the Anglican Communion, and three from the diocese of Canterbury.

Processes that follow the announcement include the election of the Archbishop-designate by the College of Canons of Canterbury Cathedral, followed by a Confirmation of Election in January, when the Archbishop-elect legally becomes the Archbishop of Canterbury. After this, the Archbishop will pay homage to the King before being installed in the Chair of St Augustine at Canterbury Cathedral.

Praying with St Benedict Workshop

Friday 14th & Saturday 15th November
10am – 3.30pm both days. (Refreshments from 9.30am)

Led by Mother Anne Clarke OSB, Abbess of Malling Abbey, UK.

The Rule of Saint Benedict lays out a pattern of life that integrates mind, body and spirit so that we may engage our whole being to 'pray without ceasing'. It continues to inspire people today and provides much wisdom to guide us as we seek to live God-centred lives in our distracted and media-soaked society.

In these two workshops we will explore the ways early Christians prayed, how they laid the foundations for Benedict's monastic life and what all this might mean for us today. These will be practical rather than scholarly workshops with reflections from Mother Anne along with opportunity for discussion, individual reflection and participation in prayer exercises inspired by the practices of early Christians and the Rule of St Benedict.

Workshop 1: 'Pray without ceasing' [1 Thess 5:17] – early Christian approaches to fulfilling St Paul's teaching.

Workshop 2: Prayer in the Rule of St Benedict – how the Rule can guide us toward living lives infused with the presence of God.

Each workshop will be complete in itself but taken together will give a deeper understanding of prayer and the Rule of St Benedict.

Mother Anne OSB has a PhD in computer science from Cambridge University, UK, and worked for 25 years in the hi-tech world of 'Silicon Fen' (as the area around Cambridge has come to be known). She was involved in early experiments with social media but became disillusioned with the idea that more technology was always a good thing. This led to training in massage therapy and exploration of the relationship between body and prayer. Eventually she followed God's call to live a life of prayer, entering the Benedictine monastic community of Malling Abbey in the UK in 2009.
