HOLY WEEK

The Lenten journey intensifies this week. The triumphant entry of Jesus into Jerusalem is soon forgotten as we hear, this year, from Luke's Gospel of the Passion narrative. We move from exultation to despair and crucifixion. I encourage you to enter fully into Holy Week and our Lord's passion by attending the many and varied liturgies that are part of our pilgrimage of faith and hope.

A Prayer for Holy Week

Silent God, even in stillness, you never abandon your people. Your tender heart breaks open in the extreme depths of human suffering. We trust in your power to bring life from situations of death. May the whole world know the transforming power of your great love, a love that brings us through death into life with and in your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Oscar Romero

A Prayer

Your Servant, O God, speaks the word that all the weary long to hear.
Your Son, Jesus, humbles himself to carry the cross.
In this time as we enter Holy Week,
let the same mind be in us that was in Christ Jesus.
Enlighten us and draw us close to the cross of Christ.
May we acknowledge him to be truly the Son of God,
and confess him as Christ the Lord. Amen.

Questions

How will I spend Holy Week?

What commitment will make to help sanctify it?

Looking to Jesus – 2021

Simon of Cyrene helped Jesus carry his cross. Have there been times when others have helped you carry your own cross?

MOTHERS' UNION - THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Love Assures Us - 'And hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us' (Romans 5:5)

Just before this verse, Paul has been talking about the troubles which come upon us even though we have peace with God. In the midst of such pains, how can we be sure that all will be well? How can we have hope? Because the Holy Spirit in our hearts assures us that we are loved by God. If we wonder how, the next verse gives us the answer. We are absolutely sure of the love of God for us, because 'Christ died for the ungodly' (Verse 6). When doubt assails us, we go to the cross. We know that we do not deserve the love of God, but we also know that he showed amazing grace in giving his life for us. He died for us.

Question for thought:

Where do you turn when you worry that you are not good enough for God?

Almighty God, we give thanks for the Mothers Union Triennial Conference held in Dogura, Papua New Guinea in September 2024. Pray that the outcomes of the conference in encouraging the study of God's Word, literacy and how to care for those coping with domestic violence and sorcery. Pray too for the Diocese of Canberra Goulburn with new leadership. Amen.

DIOCESAN ANNIVERSARY YEAR

As part of our anniversary celebrations this year, the MDC plans to produce a booklet (Looking Back, Moving Forward) that celebrates some of the faithful heroes of our diocese, and that looks forward to our vision for the future.

We therefore invite each parish to provide at least two stories (one lay and one cleric) of people who have been significant in the development of their church and people.

We would also like something about your vision or hope for the future. As we plan that every parish will be included in this booklet we ask that you limit your contributions to around 300 words for each story.

We would like to receive these stories by the end of April, so it is important that you begin discussions with your people as soon as possible.
